Attendees at SCAI Scientific Sessions repeatedly tell us they are most interested in hands-on training opportunities. This opportunity allows you to reach meeting attendees with your interactive, hands-on skill training in a private setting in the exhibit hall over three days. Registration for learning lab sessions will be integrated into SCAI 2024 Scientific Sessions attendee registration portal to best assure your program will be a success. In addition, SCAI will provide you with the pre-registered attendee list so you can provide any materials or communications ahead of SCAI 2024 Scientific Sessions.

If you're interested in exploring opportunities, please contact Sandy Hung at shung@scai.org.

Affiliated event guidelines are subject to change.

To be approved:

- Affiliated activities must not conflict with the official Scientific Sessions Program (see restricted times below)

If an affiliated event is found to have violated the Guidelines for Affiliated Events (above), SCAI may prohibit the sponsoring organization, the supporting organization, and the organizer of the meeting from holding an affiliated event at future SCAI meetings, and may revoke their current registration. Non-compliance may result in fines and damages, and could negatively impact the registration/status/attendance of those attending an unapproved affiliated event. Scientific Sessions faculty members participating in any such event are subject to having their faculty status revoked including any reimbursement of expenses otherwise authorized.
